

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE, PLANNING AND LANDSCAPE

SESSIONAL POSTINGS AVAILABLE

The School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape invites applications for a term certain Sessional Instructor to teach EVDP 636 – Community Planning Studio. This course will be taught Winter 2020, schedule TBD. Some additional time in the form of office hours for students is expected. This is a core course in the Master of Planning and Master of Landscape Architecture programs within the Faculty.

Course Description

Introduction to the use of GIS in urban planning and environmental management. GIS modelling focusing on population projection, location theory, land use modelling and environmental and ecological management. Case studies from both the public and private sector provide the basis of assignments. Emphasis given to developing sensitivity to the application appropriate for specific GIS problems.

Requirements

The successful candidate will have completed at least a professional degree in Planning or a related discipline and have prior teaching experience at the graduate level.

To apply, please submit a letter of application to Dr. Mary-Ellen Tyler, Interim Associate Dean (Academic) Landscape + Planning at tyler@ucalgary.ca indicating which course(s) and session(s) you are interested in teaching. Application documents can also be mailed or delivered to:

Dr. Mary-Ellen Tyler
Interim Associate Dean (Academic) Landscape + Planning
School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape
University of Calgary
2500 University Drive NW, Calgary T2N 1N4

In support of your application, please provide the following:

1. Cover letter
2. Current, up-to-date curriculum vitae (CV) (if the faculty does not have a copy of your current CV)
3. Three letters of reference (required if you have not taught for the faculty before)
4. Description of your qualifications in support of each course you are interested in teaching (could include evidence of teaching effectiveness.)

Application deadline: November 15, 2019

Sessional positions are offered on a per course basis. Please see the Faculty Association of the University of Calgary (TUCFA) website at <http://www.ucalgary.ca/tucfa/> for further information regarding conditions of employment and remuneration.

The University of Calgary believes that a respectful workplace, equal opportunity and building a diverse workforce contribute to the richness of the environment for teaching, learning and research, and provide faculty, staff, students and the public with a university that reflects the society it serves.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In this connection, at the time of your application, please answer the following questions: Are you a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada? (Yes/No)

About the University of Calgary

The University of Calgary is a leading Canadian university located in the nation's most enterprising city. The university has a clear strategic direction to be one of Canada's top five research universities by 2016, where innovative teaching and groundbreaking research go hand in hand, and where we fully engage the communities we both serve and lead. The strategy is called Eyes High, inspired by our Gaelic motto, which translates to 'I will lift up my eyes'.

To succeed as one of Canada's top universities, where new ideas are created, tested and applied through first-class teaching and research, the University of Calgary needs more of the best minds in our classrooms and labs. We're increasing our scholarly capacity by investing in people who want to change the world, bringing the best and brightest to Calgary to form a global intellectual hub and achieve advances that matter to everyone.